Who is Carmién?

Carmién Tea started in 1998 in an old farm shop on the historic Brakfontein Estate near Citrusdal. Its founder and managing director is Mientjie Mouton, who grew up on a rooibos farm in the same valley. Today it exports rooibos to many countries.

The rooibos farm itself is not open to visitors. The Tea Shop is where you taste the tea, and the De Tol farm tour on the next page is how you see rooibos growing.

MAKE A DAY OF IT

Next door, at the top of the pass

De Tol Farm Tour

A guided drive of two and a half hours: a rooibos field, vineyards planted in 1962, citrus and stone fruit orchards, then a platter and a bottle of wine at the Platklip lookout.

R2 500 for two people, R3 000 for four, R3 500 for six and R4 000 for eight. Book ahead at detol.co.za/tours

De Tol Farm Deli and Restaurant

Farm stall, deli and restaurant. Roosterkoek is made fresh every day, with coffee, or freshly squeezed orange juice in winter.

Piekenierskloof Wines tasting room

Just behind the deli. Known for Grenache from dryland bush vines. Phone 022 921 2233.

Made by Visit Citrusdal, an independent guide to the valley, from details and photographs Carmién Tea sent us in November 2026. Carmién and De Tol set their own prices and hours; phone before a public holiday.
