A weekend at The Baths

A guest guide to the hot springs and the valley around them

Prices for March 2026 to February 2027 · checked 21 October 2026

Made by Visit Citrusdal, an independent guide to the valley. This is not The Baths' own document: the resort sets its prices, and confirms them when you book.

The six things to know

Where it is

The Baths Road, 18 km south of Citrusdal, about 20 minutes from town. From Cape Town it is 194 km, about two and a half hours.

No day visitors

The resort takes overnight guests only. There is no day pass and no day tariff.

Weekends are two nights

A weekend booking covers both Friday and Saturday; long weekends are three to four nights. Midweek is Sunday to Thursday nights, outside school holidays, which are charged at the weekend rate.

Arrive and leave

Arrive from 14h00, vacate by 10h00.

Self-catering

The chalets and flats are self-catering and air-conditioned; the 25 camping sites have power points and shared ablutions with hot water. Bring food, or shop in town: the shops page says where and when.

Booking

By phone, +27 22 921 2141 or +27 22 921 2174, up to six months ahead; availability is online at book.nightsbridge.com/13511. Cancellation: non-refundable within 14 days, plus a 20% admin fee (the resort's wording).

WHAT IT COSTS

The Baths price list, March 2026–February 2027

Per night, in South African rand. Midweek is Sunday to Thursday outside school holidays; weekends and school holidays pay the weekend rate.

WHERE YOU SLEEP	MIDWEEK	WEEKEND
Camping and caravan sites per person	R225	R275
Flats (2 guests) per unit, from	R1 600	R1 900
Olsen House with jacuzzi (2 guests) per unit, from	R1 700	R2 000
Chalets (2 guests) per unit, from	R1 900	R2 300
Larger units (4 to 6 guests) per unit	R2 000 to R4 500, depending on size and night

Camping is charged per person; every other unit per unit, so a family of four camping pays four times the nightly rate. The resort publishes one tariff a year and advertises no seasonal specials.

Booking next year?

The resort’s own PDF of the March 2027 to February 2028 tariff is linked from thebaths.co.za/rates.

When is it quietest?

The quietest nights are also the cheapest: Sunday to Thursday, outside school holidays. The water is 43 °C all year, so a cold July afternoon is arguably the best time to be in it.
